

Functionalities

- Create events associated with different dates and times
- Delete events
- View events by day, by week or by month
- *(new)edit event info
- Move an event from one date or time to another
- Search for events by their title – show all matches with date, time
- Export events for a specified date range in CSV format

Name - search event

Actors – Calendar user

Goal – Search for events either by title, or by day, week or month

Preconditions –

Extensions –

Postconditions – The event is found and edited successfully

Main Success scenario

1. User select time frame for the calendar
2. User select the search option
3. User select search event by title
4. User select the target event
5. User select edit event information, delete event and move event
6. System ask for confirmation for selecting edit the event
7. user confirm
8. System asks how to edit the event
9. User enter what to change in the event
10. System edited the event

Extensions (a):

3a). user select search event by title

4a). there is no event going by the name of this title

Name - create event

Actors – Calendar user

Goal – Create a new event with additional info to add to to their calendar

Preconditions –

Extensions –

Postconditions – The event is added to the calendar successfully

Main Success scenario

1. User adds a new event
2. User fills in the title
3. User fills in the date and time
4. User adds additional details
5. User saves the event and is put in the calendar

Extensions (a):

2a). An event with this title already exists in the calendar

3a). An event with the date and time already exists in the calendar